I have a problem with is the poor fps -- it's probably just because I'm running this on steam play, linux ubuntu but it couldn't be the source of the problem I think because I have a 1050ti.

Granted, no AI will be as unpredictable as real humans, but this will give you a chance to rehearse and learn the habits to get you started.. This game is exactly what I wanted a no-pressure, single-player environment where I can learn to aim better, manage my ammo, and know when to run and when to fight.. No one knows how to do this right out of the gate, your favorite streamers have been doing this for YEARS.. Granted, no AI will be as unpredictable as real humans, but this will give you a chance to rehearse and learn the habits to get you started.. Good job for the lone developer though; I didn't know there's just one until I've read the reviews.

Patch 2 0 Audio Update and Performance Tweak:Patch2 0 IS NOW AVAILABLE FOR DOWNLOAD!.. battle royale bootcamp free downloadThere's no actual challenge with the bots, not really my type of game.. Save your money, my dudes Edit This being a solo project, damn good job from the dev.

ly/2Jqh1BfAbout This GameBattle Royale Bootcamp is an action-packed battle royale simulator.. The new patch was a huge leap forward Great job by the one-man army making this game.. Historically, I've really been bad at playing FPS games I just want to get good enough to enjoy playing, get a few kills and not die 3 seconds after spawning.. Could not get my mouse sensitivity low enough But yes I can see how this game would help in BR games for spotting other players and sniping.. It should look nice with a bit of transparency to give that "modern" look//simplicity is the key-The bots are just standing which is even lesser of a challenge-I don't think awareness is much of a thing to be enhanced by this game (just my opinion) as I can't hear the footsteps -- I can't recall actually.. I didn't know it's just a single-player battleroyale Good job for the lone developer though; I didn't know there's just one until I've read the reviews.. No one knows how to do this right out of the gate, your favorite streamers have been doing this for YEARS.
